Spring and Summer Millinery in varied lines and shapes on sale this morning at Madame H. Schwartz's. 500 Trimmed Hats to choose from.—

For Men and Older Boys. The management of the local Y. M. C. A. has arranged an attractive meeting for men and older boys for tomorrow at 3.30 p. m. in the large store in the Thayer building on the

Dr. J. B. Slocum, who is one of the popular spenkers of the city has kindly consented to make the address and all who know Dr. Slocum know that the message will be one which is at once interesting and practical, and doubtless a large number of men will take advantage of this opportunity of hearing him. The musical part of the service will consist of selections by the orchestra led by John M. Swahn, and the singing of the popular hymns which are so much enjoyed by an audience of men. All the men of Norwich are most cordially invited to this attractive

AT THE AUDITORIUM. Bob Ott in "Nobody Home" and Paramount Photoplays Today.

Nobody Home is the pinnacle farcial creations, combined with ex-cruciatingly funny situations, tuneful lays and pretty girls. The title Nobody Home originated with Charles Dickens' "Nicholas Nickleby," page 465. Here is part of the dialogue: (Squeers is describing Smike) "He wouldn't seem so old though to those who didn't know him, for he was a little wanting here, (touching ats forehead). Nobody Home you know, if you knocked ever so often.

Mr. Ott merely uses the title because it has become a slang phrase. Ever so many of the modern humor-ists have claimed the title. Last sea-son Mr. Ott used the title and this season he has many imitators. No-body Home (Mr. Ott's production) is a lively little farce. It contains original situations, and its enactment and staging are at once thorough, com-bined with good taste and excellent musical interpolations. This in fact, is something out of the run of so-call-ed farces. The word "farce" is hired by the quartermasters of stage provisions to serve masy singular jobs. In different parts of America, for example, the word is used to des-ignate any piece containing a soda syphon, slap-stick, Charlie Chaplin make-up, a stamping by one character on anothers corn, a man with a gouty foot and then hop adound in pain, a character who gives another character a lusty whack on the back, a fainting more downright uproarious and ribpoking to the everyday yokel than an enormous clatter off stage supposed to represent a character falling nownstairs, I'm sure I don't know what it is unless it is the joke about the goat who had its nose a lusty whack on the back, a fainting English touring companies is known woman and a male actor in a lady's as "fit-ups;" that is to say, they will be given away at the matinee.

Next Week at The Auditorium. Three high class vaudeville acts and the five reel Paramount feature, Valeska Suratt in The Immigrant, will be the attractions here next Monday and Tuesday. The vaudeville will be headed by the big time novelty pre-sented by Hart and Rogers, who have a destinctive offering in the comedy for which they carry a beautiful stage setting. This is one of the classiest acts ever seen at this theatre and will Barrett and Mayne, a mixed team will present the second vaudeville number, which will consist of character songs and dances with several acter songs and dances, with several changes of excellent wardrobe. Last, but not least will come Harry Rich, who has a comedy juggling turn that will make you sit up and take notice. For Monday and Tuesday Jesse L.

Lasky will present the Paramount feature, The Immigrant, featuring Veleska Suratt and taken from the book by Marien Fairfax. A short synopsis folows: Valeska Suratt appears in the Jesse Lasky Feature Play Company production, The Immigrant, in which she will make her debut as a star on the aramount programme.

Few American actresses are so well known as Miss Suratt. For her first Lasky production she has been pro-vided with a role that is something different from the kind of part which Miss Suratt in the past has been Miss Suratt appears in The Immigrant as a young peasant woman from a foreign land who comes to America and fights and wins her way into suc-cess. Considerable of the story happens on the transcontinental liner aboard which Masha (Miss Suratt) and her countrymen and country-women are seen as steerage passengers There is a detailed narrative of the trials and tribulations of the newly arrived foreigner and the hardships which she undergoes and the simple happiness she obtains from the occasion with her own allen people.

Marion Fairfax who wrote The Immigrant has developed a strong, virile drama, full of sypmathic appeal.

ng those who appear in support of Miss Suratt are Thomas Meighan, Theodore Roberts, Hal Clements, Ernest Joy, Bob Fleming, Jane Wolff and Mrs. Lewis McCord.

On Wednesday and Thursday the management of the Auditorium have booked a wonderful picture entitled The Horrors of War. It promises to be the best war picture ever shown in this city.

Another feature at-traction is the Polzin Brothers, two comedy acrobats, who are so far shead of anything ever seen here that there is no comparison. The third act is Troy and Morris, two clever entertainers, who have a comedy offering with singing and dancing as a socondary consideration. In addition to this big bill of vaudeville there is the usual programme of Triangle pictures, the feature is called Martha's Vindication, featuring such stars as Tulky Marchall feature is called martha's vindication, featuring such stars as Tully Marshall, Seena Owen and Norma Talmadge. For the first half of next week the management have booked an all girl show, and every act on the bill will consist of girls. Mere man will not be allowed on the stage of the Davis the first half. The big musical comedy, The Girl From Kokomo, with the vivacious comedienne Eve La Rue. This is not a tab show, but a regular miniture musical comedy, with special scenery and electrical effects, and a bevy of pretty girls, known as the Broadway Broilers. There are nine girls in all in this one act. The second act on the bill is The Howard Sisters, a clever team of international entertainers who have something new The fine Bank Building of The nanagement have booked an all girl entertainers who have something new to offer. The third act is Hope Vernon, a winsome miss who can smg and play violin with the best of them.

The usual high class programme of Triangle pictures will be shown, the feature called The Raiders, a five part Ince production, with H. B. Walton. The Keystone comedy is called An Oily Scoundrel and Fred Mace is the star in this comedy. You cannot beta this show for the money anywhere.

GEORGE ARLISS IN "PAGANINI." Coming to the Davis Theatre, Friday, May 5.

That there is no "royal road" tardom for the male sex, at least, is flustrated by the interesting career of leorge Arliss, who comes to the Dayls heatre on Friday evening, May 5, direct from a remarkable record-break-ing engagement at the Hollis Street and Colonial theatres. Boston, which was interrupted only by the inability to find further time in that city for Mr. Arliss, on account of the sudden closing of the Tremont theatre there. In his new comedy, Paganini. Concert and Entertainment.

Anyone who fails to attend the con-cert and entertainment to be given by the Men's Club of St. Andrew's church on Monday evening, May 1, 1916, in Pulaski hall, will miss one of the best high class performances given in Norwich in recent years.

Mr. Charles T. Grilley, the author of many dislect poems and songs, is known in every state in the Union as interpreter of dramatic and humorous literature. He is not simply an imiliterature. He is not simply an imitator; he is an impersonator of remarkable ability. The Great Falls Tribune says he is: "Equally as good in the rendition of humor as pathos. Swayed the audience at will from laughter to perfect quiet."

The Tempo Male Quartet is already known to Norwich, and those who have once heard it, will not want to miss it. The Bridgeport Farmer says: "The quartet is without doubt one of the best ever heard in this city. Their work demonstrated that they are mu-
